The next iteration of Open Networked Learning, ONL211, will start 22 February 2021!
We are preparing for another exciting course and hope you will join us!

Would you like to:
- Learn about how to create collaborative and flexible learning environments online?
- Learn about using Problem Based Learning in an open setting?
- Extend your professional network?
- Try different digital tools and methods in a pedagogical context?
- Get updated on research and trends in online learning?

If yes – here’s a course for you! ONL is an open course aimed at teachers, educational developers, learning technologists and course designers in Higher Education, who want to develop teaching using digital tools and learning environments. The course gives you the opportunity to explore and try collaborative learning in an open online learning environment with colleagues from different universities, disciplines and cultures.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

- February 22 – May 16, 2021
- 6-8 hours / week

COURSE TOPICS

1. Connecting; online participation and digital literacies
2. Open learning - sharing and openness
3. Learning in communities - networked and collaborative learning
4. Design for online and blended learning
5. Lessons learnt - future practice

READ MORE
http://opennetworkedlearning.se

FOLLOW US ON TWITTER
@OpenNetLearn

COURSE ORGANISERS

- Alastair Creelman, Linnaeus University alastair.creelman@lnu.se
- Maria Kvarnström, Linköping University maria.kvarnstrom@liu.se
- Jörg Pareigis, Karlstad University jorg.pareigis@kau.se
- Lars Uhlin, Linköping University lars.uhlin@liu.se
- Lotta Åbjörnsson, Lund University lotta.abjornsson@ahu.lu.se

COLLABORATING INSTITUTIONS ONL211 (preliminary)
Karlstad University, Linköping University, Linnaeus University, Luleå University of Technology, Lund University, Mälardalen University, Stockholm University (Sweden); Aalto University, Arcada University of Applied Sciences (Finland); Oldenburg University (Germany); Zürich University of Applied Sciences (Switzerland); National University of Singapore (Singapore); Educor, Independent Institute of Education (South Africa).