• The timetable for the 2021 Spring semester will be published online today, December 21st. Students and teachers will find the timetable online. Please use this link: https://cloud.timeedit.net/liu/web/schema/ri1Q7.html

• The timetable for the second half of the 2021 Spring semester (weeks 13-23) is currently undergoing consultation. Please make sure that any requests for timetable changes regarding the second half of the 2021 Spring semester are forwarded to the central Timetable coordination office no later than Friday January 29th.

• All room reservations for teaching activities during the second half of the Spring term (week 13-week 23) have been canceled. This also applies to department owned rooms. Exceptions have been made for some practical elements, such as laboratory work and skills training, as well as all teaching activities at Clinicum.

• The process of adjusting the timetable for teaching activities at Clinicum will continue in January.

• As of today, please refer all requests for timetable revisions regarding the first half of the 2021 Spring semester (up to and including week 12) to your local administrator or contact person.

Happy holidays!
Best regards,
The coordinators at FILFAK, MEDFAK and UV
